AutoCAD Crack + Torrent (Activation Code) X64

AutoCAD Serial Key has several specialized drawing tools, including the ability to add custom annotations, layers and line styles, as well as edit the text and symbols in the drawing. Its drawing tools are used by graphic designers, engineers, architects, educators, and surveyors. Awards AutoCAD Free Download was first introduced in 1982. In 1983, the National Science Foundation (NSF) used AutoCAD Crack For Windows to design and produce a detailed plan for the NSF Data Processing Center in the Nevada Test Site. In 1985, Autodesk won a CASE award (Computer-Aided Software Engineering) for AutoCAD for the Automatic Generation of Secondary Structures in Programmed DNA. In 1988, Autodesk won another CASE award for AutoCAD for the Automatic Generation of Secondary Structures in Programmed DNA. The reason for this award was that Autodesk "focuses on the needs of users, not the needs of vendors." In 1989, Autodesk received an IBM (IBM Corporation) Software Award for its AutoCAD program. The IBM award stated that "Autodesk has succeeded in developing a software application that has integrated the technology, techniques, and methodologies of the computer and graphic arts." In 1996, Autodesk was awarded a U.S. Patent for its AutoCAD package and specifically for its "first-in, first-out" construction (FIFO) ordering technology. This technology was used to enable more efficient storage of three-dimensional objects in AutoCAD. In 1997, Autodesk received an IBM (IBM Corporation) Software Award for its AutoCAD product suite. The IBM award stated that Autodesk developed AutoCAD "for use in the general design of technical products, where quick and accurate design time is critical." In 1998, Autodesk received a "Group of 15" award for AutoCAD. The award was given to Autodesk by the New York City Business Journal for its product/engineering group (P/E) and "Team of 500" efforts. In 2001, Autodesk received an overall Best of the Year award for its "engineering tool" of the year. In 2002, Autodesk received an "Outstanding Technology Leadership Award" from the Engineering Design Group. The award was given in recognition of Autodesk's work in CAD/CAM/CAE software. In 2003, Autodesk received
