Zombio Mage Posted by Andrew on 14th-Apr-2014 My Best: this game is hard to put into words, it is unique, it is epic, it is difficult, it is difficult to learn, it is awesome, it is awesome to learn and master. I cannot recommend this game to anyone, it is fantastic and it is worth the money.

My Worst: it did take me a while to get used to the controls and understand the game. It is also a short game that is I am already at level 41. (It only took me 2 hours to finish the game after a good play through) Overall Score: 4/5- I was a little worried about what the game was going to be about. When I first started the game, I thought, "sure it is an Elden game but it could be a simple RPG and end early." When I started the game, I was so stunned and amazed, I started reading the game from the beginning. I realized that this was not an RPG, this is a game with a plot, in a fantasy game, in a world full of power, in a game that is hard to play and hard to master. The plot took me a while to grasp, the controls and platforming mechanics are hard to learn but with practice, it becomes a lot easier. Elden Ring is a fantasy game that takes place in a world, a world that we do not know exists, a world where the people live in harmony, but as this world grows in power, the lands will grow in darkness. The plot is told in fragments where you need to go around and collect three fragments of the entire plot. The game has a high level of difficulty but it is not impossible. The game takes a lot of time to finish, around 2-3 hours per play through. The game has no voice acting, but the story is good enough for you to understand the plot and what is going on. The game has an unlock system, you start the game from the beginning and you must complete all of the quests in order to unlock the story mode. As you do some quests, you unlock the game modes and the ability to join a server. The servers are the other players who are also playing the game. Gameplay: There is a nice variety of quests to do. The game does not keep track of bff6bb2d33
