The new “HyperMotion Technology” also includes a new “Fake Player” model, which allows FIFA and FIFA Ultimate Team players to enjoy the benefits of the new motion capturing technology by playing computer opponents virtually.

The model can be used for matchmaking purposes. General improvements include a smoother camera animation, improved ball physics and more realistic ball movement. FIFA on Facebook (www.facebook.com/fifa) players can now take direct control of the “Real Opponents” with the ability to add them to their team as “FIFA Pro Evolution Soccer” players. Offline player customisation has been greatly improved. Players now have the opportunity to customise their various attributes, playing styles and icons. We have also made some changes to online matchmaking to introduce even more competition, giving everyone the opportunity to play against players of similar skill levels and rank. Offline customisation has been improved, allowing players to customise the price they are willing to pay for players, teams and stadiums as well as making various features including broadcasters, licences and timezone settings customizable. A new versioning process has been introduced, allowing you to freely save your FIFA on Facebook offline progress in a special save file, and continue it offline at a later time. FIFA on Facebook lets you share challenges via WhatsApp in social and messaging games. New features for Wii U version Wii U eShop users can now share their achievements in the eShop between devices with the Wii U Gamepad. FIFA 14 Ultimate Team App is now available for iOS devices. iOS device users can now choose between support for 32 and 64 bit devices in the FIFA 14 app. The iOS device user interface has been improved by giving additional space to the main game screen. We have introduced a new, improved leaderboard for Wii U. Wii U users can now connect their Facebook and Nintendo accounts to enjoy more challenges, user profiles, leaderboards and achievements. In recent years, there has been much talk on the subject of unfair online matchmaking and issues concerning the wealth of users who cannot access the matches that they wish to play and the slow pace of the matches that they do play. These issues have arisen repeatedly and to a great extent. FIFA on Facebook is here to respond to the needs of players looking for more options to

EA SPORTS FIFA 20 will include over 300 real players and 700 licensed teams from more than 50 countries, with new gameplay innovations. EA SPORTS FIFA 19 brought together all the core aspects of making a FIFA game, including new pro-level gameplay, unprecedented tactics, and more. Learn about FIFA EA SPORTS FIFA 20 Features Bringing innovation and gameplay that's closer to the real thing, FIFA 20 delivers on the promise of recent FIFA titles by updating the game's core gameplay. Here are the game's key features. Improved FIFA Pass FIFA 20 introduces a new FIFA Pass feature that gives players a new way to connect, compete and communicate with friends and others using the game. The FIFA Pass offers a new social discovery and engagement system that highlights the content people are sharing with each other through the game. The FIFA Pass brings content from friends and other players into a shared feed where users can comment on what players they have played against and against whom they have won. Players can also access the content they have already viewed by simply visiting the FIFA Pass, with the ability to save content for future reference or to continue watching it later. The FIFA Pass is completely connected to real-life social networks, including Twitter, Instagram, Facebook and more, allowing you to connect with your friends in the real world and share content and engage with them throughout the game. With the addition of new commentary via EA SPORTS Social, you'll also be able to view exclusive FIFA highlights from FIFA's video editors, including EA SPORTS FIFA's Sideline Show, EA SPORTS FIFA Ultimate Team and EA SPORTS FIFA 20. Improved dribbling FIFA 20 returns to the core gameplay that made us fall in love with FIFA as the best-selling football game of all time. New animation logic provides for more responsive dribbling and allows players to keep the ball close to their feet by looking up, even if they are being tackled. Improved build-up FIFA 20 brings improvements to the new build-up system as well, creating more fluid and realistic animations and momentum of the ball when players push the ball and attacking players break it down. New physics allow players to hook or poke the ball away from opponents and control the ball with more finesse, even in tight quarters. Players will also feel more connected to the ball, allowing them bc9d6d6daa
