For the first time in FIFA history, each player in FIFA is in full control of their actions and there is no AI as a puppet. Together with the new ball physics and new player movement, the new HyperMotion features add a new level of realism in the mix. “Not only is this the largest visual change in the series’ history, it’s the deepest,” said Producer Andy Mulumba. “It will also be the most ambitious technology effort to date.” The game also introduces new controls based on in-game motion, expanded player articulation and improvements to the passing and shooting mechanics. All of these new features play a part in the exciting development of the game’s new “Football Intelligence” system. The new “Football Intelligence” makes every player a team of 11, and empowers them with situational awareness, tactical awareness, intelligent positioning and balance. The Football Intelligence tool enables players to better read the game as well as think for themselves. For the first time in the series, individual players are able to make footballing decisions and have full control of them. FIFA 22 introduces a host of new features and enhancements including new settings and more than a dozen additional international clubs. The upcoming game will also boast the largest number of clubs in the history of FIFA. As well as all 32 clubs in the FIFA 21 Premier League, clubs from North America (including Major League Soccer), Asia, Europe (including UEFA Champions League, UEFA Europa League, UEFA Super Cup, UEFA Futsal Cup, UEFA Europa League and UEFA Women’s Champions League), Africa (including CAF Champions League and CAF Confederation Cup), Oceania and South America are included. Also new in FIFA 22 is the “Now Play Anywhere” option for the first time on console. This means players can buy the game once and play it on PS4, PS3, PS Vita, Xbox One and Xbox 360. FIFA 22 is available now exclusively on PlayStation 4. Download the FIFA 22 demo from PlayStation Store today for a chance to win the FIFA Ultimate Team Gold card pack! What's new in Fifa 22:

- Dynamically generate goalkeeper line ups - When the opposition are set to face your starting XI, rather than manually selecting from the goalkeeper ranks, choose the man that's best suited to challenging the shot on the day using real-life player data. You can modify-by-hand to change lineup when the opposition is set.
- Introducing Referee features - Make matches even more authentic when

- you play as the match officials.
 - Defoe criticism has become a near cliché in modern football, with the recent commemoration of Robin van Persie's 20th goal for Arsenal perhaps a case in point. EA Sports has taken the easy approach to this episode in history by making it simply ridiculous that Jermain Defoe wasn't voted a substitute for the Premier League player of the year awards last year.
 - In-game news feed is now powered by Associated Press - AP is the largest and most trusted U.S. source for breaking news and dispatches more than 26,000 photographers and reporters in 137 countries to cover the stories that matter most to the world's media. We will showcase AP reports as well as stories from the English language news publishers, all under the EA Sports banner. The AP news feed is now powered by EA's Social Media Platforms team—a sub-group within EA SPORTS.
