It all sounds cool and fun, but what do you do if you, like me, are not a top-level athlete? Does this sort of thing help you or hurt your performance? The short answer is that it does exactly what you would expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect: it helps. Here are the 10 best attributes you should expect from FIFA 22: Motion-capture suits provide a closer approximation of real-life movement to the player model with the arms and legs at unnatural angles, the player model will actually follow the same movements as real life does in the video below: Another big improvement is that the player model is more realistic, considering the physiological characteristics of the player. A player's head speed, which is the most important and most intuitive way of controlling a player, matches the efficiency of the player's true head movement in real life. If you are the type that likes to be not your top corner, the new player model will allow you to do so naturally: FIFA 22 will allow you to have dynamic dribbling animations by changing direction and speed: Blocking is easier and more accurate: Many times in FIFA, the defenders seemed to be locking on to your movements, making it impossible to get past them. Not so in FIFA 22: It's or easy to get past defenders now. Just watch. The ball is now more precise and in many situations a ball handler will be able to place the ball with pipoint accuracy: Now they can put it right where they are those that are power defenders now. Just watch. The ball is now more consistently: What the developers also found is that the player controller is much more realistic and you will be able to defend more

What's new:

- FIFA 22 is loaded with cool new features and enhancements, including:
   Corner Kicks Place the ball right on the edge of the six-yard box. This works well in tournament play or with aerial attacks.
   Obstacle Cam See what is in the way when you go for a cross or a corner. This info comes up on the corner taker and also the ball.
   Real Player Personality Celebrate your own celebrations! There's also a new "Celebrate Moments" feature to get you pumped up for those big moments.
   Keeper Dash Quickly dash off to your goal when you're given a free kick/corner.
   Player Limits A new Player Limit system has been added, allowing you to control the amount of players you can have on each pitch.
   Team Lineups See team lineups based on your personal player statistics.
- The dynamic My Player model returns in FIFA 22 with My Player Builder. This makes it easy to create your very own superstars with or without My Club. If you want to go hands-on, My Player Builder is just as easy as it gets. Try out eleven positions, try out over 20 different buttons styles or pick a goalkeeper, three defenders and a midfielder. Then transfer them to your team and see the results for yourself. Go one-on-one. Make that goal. Create a defense. Perfect those forays upfield. But be careful. If you lose you'll need to start over from scratch.
