Our rollercoasters are as old as our civilization. People have been riding the carriages of these moving wooden boxes for centuries. They were the only source of entertainment in those days. And now they're the most popular leisure activities in the world. Epic Roller Coasters is all about those rides. It is a simulation game where the player will get to build real roller coasters. Key

Features: - Build the highest roller coasters around the world. - Juggle your passengers to the best of your ability. - Design your rollercoaster experiences with a unique puzzle-solving system. - Build strong and safe rollercoasters of various types. - Mount your rollercoaster to your game pad with joysticks. - Save your game at any time. - Replay your most epic moments and get achievements. - Share your creations with other players online. Roller Coasters are back! Make the best rides your passengers have ever seen. Have you got what it takes to make them scream as they hurtle down the tracks? Epic Roller Coasters™ is a fast paced, physics-based, puzzle solving driving simulator where you will be charged with finding clever solutions for the challenges that will be thrown your way. Design your own roller coaster and then face on-screen challenges to build a track as creative and fun as you want it to be. Use logic to find a way to get your passengers across each level, but be careful; the track will keep the experience flowing! Get ready for a ride in the footsteps of your legends of the amusement business and become one of them! Tired of being bullied by the guys and gals at the office? Sick of being a slave in your family's totalitarian regime? Well, with EvilBallz you can take on the bullies and tyrannical bosses and home bosses! EvilBallz features 3 game modes: Practice Mode, Practice Room and In-Game. Practice Mode: This mode helps you improve your badminton skills on a single court of your choice. You will play against a computer-controlled opponent. Practice Room: This is the advanced version of Practice Mode in which you can select multiple courts to play on. You can also record and replay your best shots to improve your skills and further learn strategies. In-Game: In-Game mode features one-on-one badminton matches against a computer opponent. You will play 10 game-lessons on 3 courts, totaling

Guns Craft - Expansion Pack 2 Features Key:

5 points: P A S I T S - P M N L ; A B C D Q F G J H I K ; 8-9-1-3-0-7-6-9-2-4-0-8-5-9 ; P K L M N ; G
Q R S T ; J C B D

How to Play:

- Draw five lines. Each line is a letter of the alphabet.
- Each player "secretly" writes down five letter sequences that correspond to where those five lines cross in the grid. A, B and C... Add extra numbers for D, E, F, G, H, J and K to the 5 letter sequences for even more points.
- Whoever matches their five letter sequence to one of the five grids that Theo's World has used is awarded the points. Points do not have to be committed immediately after you think of your sequence; you may instead wait until you are close to the time it's your turn to play. You can keep adding to your sequences over the course of the game.

- Depending on how many lines you draw you may need to rewrite the grid up to five times before it is able to accommodate five lines.
- As the game goes on, you will find that some grids become harder to match to as numbers get added on. This is because certain letters and numbers share positions in certain grids. To solve this, change the rules. For example, rewrite the grid in the newspaper or ask your spouse to play by the rules by using one of the printouts of the grid.
- Gaps of 2-3 spaces added to the grid are considered to be the same as a new line drawn in the center of the grid. If you add space to the grid, you still give away where you drew lines. You therefore need to write the five-letter word immediately when you think of it.
- Theoretically, you may write your secret word down on one sheet of paper and show that sheet to the rest of the group. However, this is not recommended as it's easier to write the numbers down on separate pieces of paper.

The main gameplay loop revolves around cargo hauling. The player can choose to operate their own ship or pilot a vessel under their control. Handling large freighters can be tricky as misjudging the wind strength and the currents can cost you dearly. A skilled captain will avoid sailing in poor conditions and will avoid sailing at night. Early career captains make sure to cruise the ocean in clear weather conditions or even go sight seeing. Once enough money is earned, a captain can upgrade to more advanced equipment and better crewmembers that will make the job easier. Making a Final Delivery: A cargo vessel is a very slow and steady way to make a living compared to ocean going ships such as the oil tankers. But if you choose to learn the fundamentals of vessel handling, you can safely manoeuvre your vessel into the harbour and avoid collisions and other hazards on the water. Happy voyage and good fortune! Josh Brolin is second in line for the role that both destroyed and elevated James Bond in Casino Royale, and while the actor was too busy with directing duties to return for his follow up, he's taken some time to rewatch the legendary actor's first turn as the superspy. "I've just watched it a couple of weeks ago, just seeing how it did," Brolin said in an interview with The Hollywood Reporter. "It's great. I just love James Bond. I mean, I love Bond. He's been a hero to me since I was a kid. It was a very significant transition for me in some ways. The character had a lot of complexity to it that, I was a different guy than what I am now in the movie. So I was asked to be Bond and I didn't really know what that meant." On top of that, Brolin was working on the spy film Sin City, which would mark his first time to play a character who was neither a good nor a bad guy. "I think it probably wasn't the most natural," Brolin said of Bond, "in a way. In a way, it's up to me to figure out what he's going to be. I still don't know what that is. I know what he's supposed to be. I know what he needs to be. I just don't know whether that's me or not."

What's new:

", "American Truck Bully" and "Mini-Skirt River") "We're a tribal warriors" Ferrero earlier in the year referred to the new album title, which will be out on August 19, as being "a nod to the worst parts of the West". "We're a band that pays homage to the old school, but we're a brand new world too and we're a tribe of warriors," explains Conley. "We came from a place in Charleston. We were influenced by the northwest punk scene and by our mates from the UK, and we wanted to do a record that embodied where we came from, where we are now and where we're going to go to." Said Conley: "American Truck Bully was the spine that runs the album and it's a great opening track, a great entrance piece." He adds: "We're all proud of it and I think the other 2 are great entries too, particularly Mountain Mind EP - it's a song that we're very proud of and that embodies the era of our lives when we first started playing, so we're all pleased with it." ADVERTISEMENT When we caught up with the band in Boston last week, they confirmed the album title was indeed an ode to the beauty of the American wild west. "It's a nod to that," says Conley, "including the cowboy, the cowboy hat, the western star and those aspects. We talked about the pioneer spirit we were about to walk into and the old west was a bit of a mythical place that we could move into." "With this, we had the luxury of our old band and playing music together,” says Conley. “We wanted to make the album much more of a personal record. We'd had a lot of people telling us that they'd have no idea where 'we' were coming from. In writing this album, we got to get somewhere more personal, stripped down and raw... so we hope people see where 'we' are now."NORMAL, OK (KSWO) - All of the over 22 inch snowfalls that have hit Oklahoma over the past three weeks were well above normal. The only exception was the storm that did not deliver a single flake on Oct. 8, and left the beaches as bright as ever. A 55 inch snow fall, that means just under
