Fur Up is an arcade score-chasing game, where you have to beat your previous score if you are playing by yourself, or survive the longest if you are playing against others. Use the power-ups to slow down time, or move faster if you can manage it. Jump and avoid enemies to score as much as possible. Leave other players behind. The farther up you get the more difficult the game becomes. Test your limits against the increasing difficulty of single player, or try to outrace your friends (enemies?) in up to 4-player multiplayer. No friends left? No worries, fight against random players from all over the world with head to head matchmaking. Features: - Chill and pleasant colorful environment - Adorable enemies that kill you with a single touch - Up to 4-player multiplayer with your friends - Head to head matchmaking with strangers from all over the world - Cross-platform multiplayer - Steam achievements to record your skill for all time - Steam leaderboards to compete for the highest scores Barrel Sandwich What I created for fun-time is a very simple, one-player puzzle/platform game. The aim of the game is to get the balls to the big red hole, through the tunnel and back again. If you find a useful tip (such as an extra power-up), it would be great to let me know, or if you find a way to make the game better, tell me so that I can improve it for other players. Game features: - Very simple and clean game design - Easy learning curve and can be played in less than 3 minutes - Placeholder graphics - Concept-in-development state - Free and no barrier to download - Cross-platform (Windows and Mac) and free of charge - Written in Java - Available for Linux, Windows and Mac Controls: - The game is playable with just a mouse. - It is recommended that you hold down the left mouse button to control the ball. - If you hold down the right mouse button, you can accelerate and stop the balls, allowing them to fly over obstacles. - A super-duper-speed-button (Super) can be held down to make the balls fly at exceptional speeds. - Some of the obstacle courses may require that you turn the device sideways, to keep balls in play. (Try to keep the horizontal axis clean, though

In the distant future, mining is the most dangerous and most important job on the planet. It is mind-bogglingly difficult, but even more dangerous than the huge dangers and huge rewards. The mining operation consists of a multitude of giant metal structures, called Gates, which are the home to the miners, and also the biggest threat to their lives. A new world called Terraria is starting to emerge from the ground of the land, and it is inhabited by a people of dwarves, humans and ogres. Mining in these circumstances is a risky proposition for human miners. What will you do in the mine? Golem Gates is a true puzzle game. It's a mysterious and horrifying game, to be played alone or in co-op. The game's single-player mode is divided in three "Gates", each one containing an assortment of puzzles and enemies which change as the game progresses. Each player character has specific combat, hacking and mining skills. The enemies attack by moving and attacking the surroundings. The players can use the environment to their advantage. Don't get stuck in a corner! Always look around, preferably around the corner. As this is a first-person action puzzle game, players need to focus carefully on their surroundings and get the best timing on solving puzzles to survive.

Golem Gates takes place on a futuristic planet, called "Gorelm", which is taken over by mad machines called "gols". In their war against humans and dwarfs, they can't risk having human miners as their greatest threat. They had destroyed the gates and defenses of the human miners, and only few survive. In order to keep the gols at bay and give humanity a chance to rebuild, they called for a new generation of gate miners, who no longer had the power of their forefathers, but instead of destroying themselves with their power, they used their gift to create a new kind of life for the human people. This is the story of three elite and unique Gate miners. You follow them in their struggle. They are called "Sarkar", a set of young wizards, "Vayghesh", a wandering "knight", and "Guvristh", an enigmatic and lethal female warrior. The game takes place in a world of "Terraria", where the ground is slowly emerging from the depths of the planet. Civilization is only just starting to emerge from the old homelands. The moment you start the game, the world c9d1549cdd

----- Each level of sWORD MASTER is divided in 5 parts, the mechanic of the game is very simple: - A word is typed in the line displayed above the word. - A letter is presented every few seconds, the letters starts and ends with a word ending, the word itself contains two parts. - The player needs to type the word on the space bar. If you do it as soon as the word is presented, the letter will appear next. If you miss a letter, you will get to see the word ending in red. What should you do? A couple of seconds later the next letter is presented to you. - Once you type a word, you need to hit the space bar to continue. This means you need to hit the space bar at least once for every word ending you have not completed. - In essence, the word ending is the difficulty of the level. If your letter selections are accurate, you will have no trouble. But if your letters are of a lower grade (sometimes it's a single letter, sometimes a 2 letter combo), you will need to pay more attention to your word ending selections. - There are two level types, Normal and Hard, which will increase the difficulty of the level accordingly. The levels are chosen randomly, so you have a fresh challenge every time.

----- Levels: sWORD MASTER is composed of 25 different Levels with different difficulty, from simple everyday words to more complex word compounds. On each level you will be presented with 4 letters which must be put together to complete the word. 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62

Corporation Apostle 3D Corporation is a large privately held New Jersey-based spatial engineering and engineering analytics company serving the civil and industrial construction markets. Founded in 2001, the company is composed of an integrated group of companies managing more than of analytical and survey software, point cloud data, additive manufacturing and fabrication services, mobile and optical scanning, and computerized measurement technologies. Corporate details Apostle 3D's headquarters are located in Mount Laurel, New Jersey. This is also where the company's marketing, design, sales and support departments are located. Its corporate engineering research and development office is located in Princeton, New Jersey, and its corporate development office is located in Reston, Virginia. The current President and CEO of the company is James R. Maloney who succeeded Randy Paolillo when he retired in 2011. Paolillo held the position of President and CEO from 2001 to 2011. In addition to his company position and its responsibilities to its stakeholders, Paolillo is Director of the Princeton Entrepreneur Society, and for seven years was Director of the Education and Civic Engagement department of the Princeton Public Library, where he was also a member of the governing board. During his time as President and CEO, Paolillo oversaw a change in the company name from ZiHere to Anthill Software before changing it to Apostle in 2002 and finally Apostle in 2006. At the time of Paolillo's retirement, there were over 11 employees and the company revenue exceeded $40 million. In 2015, the company announced that Maloney was its new president and CEO. Information on the history of the company dates back to 1997, when Jeff Seigel founded iPrint Studio, a company with the intent of developing a 100% CNC and CAD controlled and managed 3D prototyping, manufacturing, and production system. From late 1998 to late 2000, Jeff Seigel collaborated with Warren "Tiger" Maher, Eric Mattson and a team of friends, including Bill Bender, to develop and build a HP Laserjet Printing Aid. The Printing Aid was a small device that interfaced with a Hewlett-Packard Laserjet and printed out a family of pre-recorded HP Laserjet sheets on card stock that produced a three dimensional picture. The Printing Aid's 3D creation was generally limited to either walls or objects that could hide internal detail. You are thrown into the dungeon with a few measly gold coins. The bigger the dungeon, the more quests you have to complete in order to gain access to the next level. The quests you complete will eventually lead you to the final battle. You only have to navigate the dungeon and grab everything you can to obtain as much loot as possible. As the game progresses, you'll unlock new features like a new quick travel mode, new artifacts and new monsters.

Features: - 5 Levels - Loot grabbing - Enemies that get hungry - Damage information - Aesthetics I expect the game to be around a couple of hours in total, so expect some cheap $0.99 stuff.

Table of Contents: 1.0 - Introduction / Game Mechanics 1.1 - The Beginning 2.0 - Endgame / Boss Fight 3.0 - List of Artifacts 3.1 - New Artifact 3.2 - New Monster 3.3 - Bug Fixes 3.4 - New Features 4.0 - Credits 5.0 - Change Log

1.0 - Game Mechanics Everything in Greedy Dungeon is done purely by the laws of a roguelike. While the game does have several different features compared to a traditional roguelike, such as a new quick travel mode, the only way to play the game is with the items and gold you gather. You can not directly attack your way through the dungeon, but instead must rely on running away and finding more loot.

1.1 - The Beginning More info in the introduction video. 1.2 - The Endgame More info in the endgame video. 1.2.1 - The Boss Fight A certain level in the game has a boss fight on the top floor. As stated in the videos, The game was made for speedrunning, so attempting to complete everything before the time runs out is your best bet.

2.0 - Endgame / Boss Fight As the game progresses, you will have to defeat the boss at the end of each of the dungeon levels. For the final boss fight you will need to have a talent point and 10 artifact and 6 mana to unlock the boss. 2.0.1 - Gold Threshold The boss gets hungry if you do not have enough loot. So the more loot you carry, the bigger your chance of success. 2.1 - Damage Press A to see how much damage
