Kingdom Hearts Chibitrons are most often seen as evil monsters to the Sora, Donald and Goofy series of Disney adaptations. Usually referred to as villains, the chibitrons find their way to the Disney movies on a few separate occasions, first as the antagonist which no one understands; to eventually turn into the protagonist which none of the Disney movies have had the privilege to delve into before. These chibitrons are usually named from a large list of X-Men comics which can easily be recreated if you read their Wikipedia page to check out their origin.
