What's New in the Photoshop 2020 (version 21)?

What is a Photoshop Toolbox? The Photoshop Toolbox is a menu that provides access to a series of options found within Photoshop CS5/ CS6 and Lightroom 4. These tools can also be found in the Edit menu. Photoshop tools are accessed by using their name and hitting the OK button on the Toolbox. You can also open the Toolbox by clicking the menu button and selecting Edit from the menu. You can see the tools available to you by opening the Edit → Preferences dialog box. Click the Advanced Settings tab and select the Show Icon for Photoshop CS5/CS6 command in the Toolbox menu. Once you see the icon for the selected command, you are good to go. Click the icon and you can close the Toolbox. Photoshop tools are organized into groups. You can see the groups by opening the Edit → Preferences dialog box and clicking the Show Toolbox Options for Photoshop CS5/CS6 tab. This will open the menu shown on the left. It shows you the groups of tools. You can also change the groupings of the tools by clicking the arrow to the right of the group name. You can use the filter to find tools faster. This will list only the tools that you have access to for the current filter. In the Photoshop Lightroom plug-in you can also turn on the 'Show Filter Panel' in the dialog box on the Lightroom window. The toolbar is also a handy place to store your most common tools. Click the little toolbar button and the window shown in the image above will appear. Click anywhere on the window to save your favorites in the toolbar. You can then drag these tools to the toolbar as you see fit. How to use a Photoshop Brush Brushes are one of the most powerful tools in Photoshop. While they come in many different shapes and sizes, they all share the same workflow: you create a shape, hold down the Alt key while clicking to apply your shape to the canvas, and click the canvas to erase the new shape. Let's take a look at how to create a simple Photoshop brush. Start by opening your image and creating a new canvas. Select New from the File menu. Make sure the Brush Width setting is set to 100. Set the Size of the Brush dialog box to the size you want your brush to be (I used a size of 5). Click to add the brush tool to the toolbar.
