permissions I'm setting up git for a new project, and the sub-module needs a special file to function.
It is called generate-matrix-and-other-configs.json, and is a JSON file that is required to have these contents: { "x": 1, "y": 2, "generated": true } The JSON files are stored in a different directory than the rest of the git repo. I want to leave the generate-matrix-and-other-configs.json file in the parent directory, and use git to ignore
