What's new to the game is the introduction of our own AI coach. This makes learning how to be a great player even easier than before. Our AI coach will let you train normally without any input, but you can also allow your coach to interact with and advise you in-game through the menu. With the right attitude and good instruction, you can reach new heights. Your coach will keep an eye on your progress throughout your journey. The better you become, the more likely he or she will issue new training tactics and recommend new goals to help you reach your ultimate potential. The attributes and stats system has been expanded to include 25 different attributes, such as strength, stamina, physical fitness, speed and acceleration, as well as strengths and weaknesses in each one of these categories. The existing attributes have also been improved and a new attribute, football IQ, has been introduced. The new Transfer Market allows you to buy and sell players and attribute bonuses between them. As well as using Transfer Market coins that you earn through gameplay, you can also use FIFA Points to buy players from the Transfer Market. You can also add in-game bonuses for attributes by spending credits. FIFA Points and Transfer Market coins are the only way to give a player, or attribute, an ability bonus. You can unlock various abilities for them through gameplay and use these abilities in training and matches. Your training environment also allows you to be able to unlock abilities from more than one attribute. We've introduced the new Physical Awareness stat system that adds an element of unpredictability to matches. Players will be affected by physical contact differently based on their existing strength, stamina, mental and physical fitness, as well as their running speed. The team-oriented dynamic of FIFA 22 allows you to play matches as a team, like never before. Our AI system has been improved further and will now work with team tactics to allow you to modify the tactics of the opposition. We've improved a number of areas to make matches more enjoyable and fun to play. Some of these are: First touch - players can now change their first touch during a match depending on their physical attributes and training. Manoeuvre passing – pass angles have been improved in order to make passing around the pitch more unpredictable and difficult for the opposition. Tactical Awareness – players now react quicker to danger in order to make match-changing plays more convincing.

Build the ultimate team of players by accumulating new stars to unlock unique attributes and boost the potential of your players. Earn experience as you collect and upgrade players from around the world. Earn FUT coins when you play for your favorite team and redeem them for packs of players or coins as you explore the game's dynamic Seasons mode. Featured Game Modes FIFA 22 challenges you to come up with strategies to pull off the most entertaining and definitive version of the game in franchise history. The game will offer a variety of game modes that will give you the ultimate simulation experience, including: The new FORMATION PLAYER CONTROL (FPC) is a strategic gameplay innovation. This game mode now allows you to choose your player role at the moment of possession, to change formation and formation style, and to choose from a wide range of movement patterns depending on the situation. You can change formations and player roles during the match as well. This is much more realistic than before. The pitch rotation is also more realistic, with players rotating between environments in the pitch: field, bench, stadium, and garage. You can now control your players' stamina and fitness, making it a true test of the players' endurance and speed. The new short-passing system allows you to control the tempo of your game with intuitive passing animations. Pitch markers can be turned off to reduce the player count on the pitch. FIFA 22 also introduces FUT Draft. This new feature is similar to the online Seasons feature, where you accumulate coins by playing games and redeem them for certain packs of players. You can preview these packs and the coins you gain from playing, as well as watch videos explaining each player. Then select players from your team to draft and send them to your friends to play. You and your friends can play FUT draft together on the same team, or you can compete on the same team or as individuals. It's just as fun as Seasons but online. You will also have the new 'Champions League' in the game. With improved visual effects, this mode will allow you to enjoy a unique, more dramatic football experience in your club's stadium. Are you a FIFA Master? Well, wait no more! FIFA Master will also be included for the very first time in any FIFA game. With this game, you will be challenged to win the title of FIFA Master, as well as win over a new era of play from new MK2 GK's, all pre-loaded to Ultimate Team.

What's New:

Triple experience dynamic -- for the first time, the dynamic experience for both Leaderboards and Challenges will include AI players which will affect game performance and the ending. Every FIFA match for the first time will be played over four regions for the second consecutive year. In Ultimate Team and Squad Battles, the winner will experience a higher than average Match Experience distribution in order to reflect the scale of the experience gained, as well as the probability of the ending. All of this will be applied based on the opponent record, as all matches will start over four regions.

FIFA World Cup Matches, reached over 64 percent of total year-to-date online FIFA matches, in the US and Canada, reflecting the increase in interest and audience in the past four years. In addition, FIFA World Cup is now played in Mexico and Korea/Japan, bringing the number of countries playing on home soil to eight. Additional countries will also feature in the international friendly mode, such as Colombia, Egypt, Spain, and Saudi Arabia.
