(i need to keep it that way because i have to make a later version of the program that will be used by multiple people so i dont have to keep changing the code every time we use the program). What is the best way to extract this list into a text file with a value of 0 or 1 in it for each variable? A: Simply do something like: string test = string.Empty; foreach (var variable in someList) { test += string.Format(@"{0} = {1}\r ", variable.Name, variable. 6d1f23a050
