Eyeon Fusion 5.0 .rar ##BEST##

Resolume presents Fusion, a new, unique fluid simulation and compositing tool which was specifically designed to bring the power and ease of use that are the hallmark of Fusion to traditional fluid simulation and compositing methods. Fusion is fast. It is intuitive. And it is easy to learn. Fusion is the only fluid simulation and compositing tool that can simultaneously simulate both fluids and solids. It can also simulate smoke, steam, smoke/solids, haze and lighting. Fusion is also easy to learn. It is a powerful fluid simulator that simulates bodies, interfaces and fine details and is simple to use for the composition of photorealistic images. Fusion is just what the title says. It is a fusion of the highly fluid simulation capabilities of the Resolume engine with an intuitive and powerful compositing workflow. If you are looking to take your work to the next level Fusion is the ideal tool! With fluid simulation capabilities that rivals expensive software, creative freedom, and ease of use that makes it comfortable for pro and novice alike! Extreme speed, high productivity, and top quality... there is no other program that matches Fusion 5. There is no other program that comes with this level of support for audio, video, composite, NLE, graphics, and color. There is no other program that gives you so much control over the look of your scene without compromising the quality. Who should get Fusion? Fusion is ideal for anyone that demands top quality and speed in their production workflow. Its also perfect for people with demanding audio and video projects. For those types of projects, we highly recommend purchasing the new 6 year license, the new regular license is valid for 3 years.
