Canada World RXTomomasa Akutsu was a Japanese artist, painter and calligrapher of the Edo period. His father was the famed painter, who was also his pupil. Career He was born in Edo (present-day Tokyo). His career as a painter of courtesan scenes and elegant women in kabuki and shamisen inspired the title of the artist's biographical work: published in 1736. He was also one of the earliest meishō-e (woodblock print artists) to depict a woman as a queen in a situation that is somewhat different from the classic and courtly illustrations of the men in the Imperial court, which are based on real courtesan work in Edo. He was also a specialist in paintings of chuban-hon (sober, sober-thinking ladies of pleasure). He
